

Timely Appointment....

Time Appointments are pleased to announce that Jess Allan has joined their expanding team of Consultants at the Ipswich based office.

Jess is the latest Consultant to join the company. She will be responsible for building her own client base and providing further support to the team. Jess graduated in 2009 and brings experience from a legal and client driven background having worked for the crown prosecution service, where she was responsible for maintaining client detail and always delivering a professional approach to her work.

Craig Dade Managing Director of Time Appointments said. "We are delighted to welcome Jess to the team. She is extremely professional, polished and determined. We firmly believe that her attributes will make her an asset to our company and will bring her great success in her new role."
